

June 2, 2003

Job Opening: Software Developer

An instrumentation engineering company located in Knoxville, Tennessee, has an opening for an experienced software developer with an engineering background. The requirements are: BS or MS in Electrical Engineering or Computer Science, 3+ years of software development experience, team player, and ability to compose technical material.

We offer a complete package of benefits including four weeks of off time, 401k retirement plan, twelve paid holidays, health, dental, life, disability insurance, and more.

Job Title: Software Developer

Category: Computer Programming/Software Engineering

Job Description: LabView programming to develop PC-based test equipment to verify the performance of critical equipment in nuclear power plants. Some travel required.

Synopsis: We have been in business for over 25 years serving the worldwide nuclear power industry. We offer an excellent package of benefits.

Education: Bachelors or Masters Degree in Engineer

Experience: 3 years software development (LabView preferred)

Expertise: Electrical Engineering, Computer Science

Job Location: USA-TN-Knoxville

Please fax, e-mail, or send resume to:

Tashi Hashemian, AMS Corporation, 9111 Cross Park Drive, Bldg. A-100, Knoxville, TN 37923
Fax (865) 691-9344, e-mail: mehrtash@ams-corp.com.